

With nearly 20 years' collective experience, John Farrin and Royce Longton have represented Burghfield on West Berkshire Council (and previously Berkshire County Council).

Both have lived in Burghfield Common for a number of years and take a keen interest in local issues.

John & Royce's priorities for Burghfield...

Rolling the neighbourhood warden scheme out to Burghfield following the scheme's success in Calcot and Tilehurst.

Campaigning to keep the West Berkshire Council advice centres open in Burghfield and Mortimer libraries.

Promoting small affordable housing developments to help local people get on the property ladder.

Providing paper and card kerbside recycling to Burghfield residents.

Opposing the application to build 7,500 new homes on Kennet Valley Park.

Improving road surfaces and drainage to reduce road flooding.

Campaigning against increases in leisure centre entrance fees.

John and Royce's manifesto for Burghfield is part of a host of wider manifesto pledges made for West Berkshire as a whole by the Liberal Democrats.

To find out more and see the complete West Berkshire manifesto, log onto www.westberkslibdems.org.uk

Remember, these promises can only be delivered if you vote for John and Royce on May 3rd.

www.westberkslibdems.org.uk